

DAMIAN SKINNER

“Profits from innovation are simple. We make it hard!”

Introduction

Our speaker today is a fifth generation entrepreneur. In addition to his success as filmmaker, speaker, author and inventor, he and his associates are passionate about helping businesses and non-profits succeed through implementing real world practical innovation.

Over the past twenty years, Damian has literally re-invented and re-energized hundreds of organizations through the skillful use of proven, time-tested ideas.

Whether working with the mega-hit TV show American Idol to create an online membership site, or with local ministries to expand their media and outreach programs, Damian's innovative work has maximized resources and produced new revenue.
